

GRIZZLIES'58

CRAB & OYSTER FEED ON ORCAS

August 18th to 23rd, 2010

It seemed improbable that the Griz'58 could top the 2009 Cider Party at Duff Andrew's Tradewinds Farm, but once again we enjoyed a spectacular fun filled weekend on Orcas. Some arrived as early as Wednesday to get started early with a warm-up vacation.

The first group event rolled-out Friday afternoon at Jim & Kathy Youngren's gorgeous location. Jim gave us a tour of his truly amazing "Long Live the Kings" fish hatchery operation at his Glenwood Springs home on Orcas which was literally built from scratch, where no salmon stream existed before. The story of this accomplished feat and his efforts to restore salmon habitat can't be given justice in this limited space, but you can find out more about this project at <http://www.lltk.org/>.

Following the tour, we enjoyed a relaxed evening with delicious snacks and merriment, in and about the Youngren's home. It was truly a day to remember thanks to Jim and Kathy.

Thanks to Marilyn, several of us were able to get last minute seats at a sold out piano concert in Eastsound and capped the evening in fine style.

On Saturday, most everyone split off in small groups touring Orcas sights. The main event for the weekend arrived Saturday afternoon at Duff's place with a celebration of Crab and Oysters. Once again, Duff and Marilyn hosted an outstanding banquet in their superb setting at Tradewinds. We all brought a potluck of appetizers, salads, and desserts. Gordy was busy shucking oysters for all those who were inclined to slurp those delightful treasures from the Andrew's oyster beds. Duff & Marilyn served up a luscious exotic Seafood Martini to get the dinner rolling. (see picture middle left, above).

The dinner bell rang and the Crab came out on heaping platters. We filled our plates, rolled up our sleeves, by-passed the bibs and dived into a crab-cracking feast. Few had room left for the wonderful dessert offerings, but we found a way. The gang lingered well into the night under a star-lit sky and enjoyed the ending to a perfect summer's eve.

On Sunday several of us stayed over rather than fight the weekend ferry traffic. A group hiked the Mountain Lake Loop, others relaxed in Eastsound or on sightseeing excursions. Duff & Marilyn hosted a supper that evening with crab and ribs and some of the potluck salads. A pleasant evening on the deck ran well beyond the sunset hours with laughter sparked by reminiscence of our youthful antics.

Thanks to all of you who could join in this summer's outing. And for those of you who could not make it, we missed you.
