New Faces of 2012—Board Comings and Goings

By John Hennes '51

Changes are the lifeblood of an organization. New faces bring new ideas. Several changes have taken place in our association this year.

At the October 22 Annual Meeting three new board members were elected: Maggie (Nichols) Birch '64, Doug Streib '68 and John Wedeberg '63. Also, last fall two loyal and long-time alumni workers stepped down: Barbara (Wilson) Nelson '58 from the board and Whitney Mason '80 as the KUAY editor. At this time we also have a new KUAY Editor, Elizabeth (Weeks) Pankey '68, who will be showing her skills in this issue and will introduce herself in a separate article.

New Board Members:

Marguerite (Nichols) Birch '64, who goes by Maggie, lives in Ballard. She attended several Queen Anne schools, including West Queen Anne and Warren Avenue, before attending our fair high school. She is a retired credit and collection manager of many years. Two of her favorite teachers were Mr. Ed Ottum and Mr. Howard Mickelson. Among her travels she especially remembers standing on the Great Wall of China.

Doug Streib '68 attended Briarcliff, Catharine Blaine and Queen Anne, subsequently attending Shoreline Jr. College. At Queen Anne he was on the Student Council and sang with the Cantorians. He remembers Mr. Jay Pollette, Ed Billodue and Bob Morris in particular. Singing led him to entertaining with local groups Apple Pie, The Wailers and Merrilee Rush among others. The restaurant business has been his grown-up vocation, including owning The Pumphouse in Bellevue. Doug is an avid golfer. He lives in Tacoma.

John Wedeberg '63 attended John Hay and was President of QA Junior High in 1959-60. He lives in Redmond and has worked primarily as a self-employed Manufacturer's Representative in the pleasure marine industry. He is a past officer of the Northwest Marine Trade Association and is currently on the newly formed Clean Boating Foundation, working on environmental issues.

Another anniversary to celebrate! 30 years of our scholarship program, thanks to your generous contributions and the smart children and grandchildren that stem from QAHS. Kerry McMahon '54, chairman of the scholarship program, will emcee the day's event, relating inspiring stories and letting a few recipients tell of their own successes. And if that's not enough, there will be additional entertainment to close out the day's celebration. We meet Saturday, May 19, 2012, at 11:30 a.m., at the Seattle Yacht Club, where there is ample parking. Come early to enjoy one another's company and view our display table. See page 14 for the reservation form.

President's Message
Kim R. Turner '61

What a year was 2011. Parties all year long, goals reached, and good friends visited regularly. My 50th anniversary party at the Downtown Seattle Public Library was the first event in my life where people came who represented all the different groups to which I belong and with family members on hand to share in the moment. It was truly a moment to savor, but was followed by something later in the year which dumbfounded me!

I was given an award at my Class of 1961 Reunion at the Overlake Golf and Country Club, the evening of October 1, 2011. After awards were presented, I expected to give my little spiel as to how Queen Anne received its name. Instead, my classmate and co-committee member, Tom Magnuson, began a third award announcement and then hit me with a true "Gotcha!" by referring to me. (see details in the '61 reunion article) I was stunned, but only momentarily – since I still had to give my little spiel. I did, thanking the committee for the award, (and secretly hoping I could continue to live up to its intent) and then continuing with the story of Queen Anne as a neighborhood name. (You may ask me any time what that story is).

May 2012 be a great year for the Grizzlies, far-flung though we be, and here's hoping for good health and good times for us all! Oh, yes, and to my wonderful, thoughtful classmate who made me the muffler in the school colors with "QA" on one end and "61" on the other; it has been a godsend in these chilly months since our reunion. So thanks from my heart and appreciation mode.

Cheerleading Uniform Donation
Submitted by LDZobrist '62

The sister of Randi (Scheuer) Mezich '78 of Seattle was browsing at a garage sale last year when she spotted a QAHS cheerleading uniform for sale. It had the name of Sybie sewn on the front and a Class of '78 pin. Randi's sister bought the uniform and donated it to us for our memorabilia collection. After a little investigation we learned that the uniform belonged to cheerleader Sybilla "Sybie" Brown '78. Checking

Introducing myself, the New Editor

Elizabeth Weeks Pankey '68

(I use my full name now. Weeks is my maiden name.)

Okay, let's get my education history out of the way first: Briarcliff, Blaine, QA'68, U of Arizona (Studio Arts), Shoreline CC (Visual Communications Technology), and Famous Artists Correspondence School in Cartooning. Plenty of seminars, workshops and life experiences add more synapses. Organizations I am in or have been a part of include Cartoonists Northwest (2x Pres.), Graphic Artists Guild-Seattle Chapter (Nat'l Rep, Treas.), International Society of Caricature Artists (ISCA) and Snohomish County Women Business Owners Assoc. (SCWBOA). Professionally I've worked in a print shop doing layout, paste-up and typesetting; computer graphics for a local Bike Rack Manufacturer; but mostly dba e.w.p.Originals as a freelance humorous illustrator and caricature artist. Also spent over 25 years creating, marketing and shipping ewp's P.R.Cards, a line of whimsigull follow-up greeting cards for the boating industry.

Newsletter editing experience featured three groups: CNW Penstuff, SCWBOA and Trinity Parish Church in Seattle. Laying out a newsletter is like putting together a jigsaw puzzle without the picture; the more pieces the more complex the puzzle. My engineer husband is my best proofreader. Hope you all enjoy this puzzle.

By the way I've been happily married for 40+ years, have one grown daughter, two grandchildren, one cat and a cozy home in Shoreline.

the Class of '78 annual we found the photo (on page 2) of Sybie wearing the uniform in the exact condition as we received it. We did display the uniform at our Fall Luncheon on a young girl manikin, and we intend to do so again at our Spring Luncheon, so check it out. Sybie Brown has been on our missing list for many many years. If anyone has any information about her status or contact information we would be grateful to hear from you. We do want to get back in contact with her or her family.

How many paw prints can you find in this issue?

Retiring Board Members:

Barbara (Wilson) Nelson '58 has served the alumni association for 19 years, including as President from 2001-07 and Vice-President the last three years. She has been a stalwart supporter and a clear voice calling for more action and less talk. She now spends much of the year in Arizona and is no longer able to participate. We will miss her lively presence and cheerful outlook.

Whitney Mason '80 is a Lt. Colonel in the US Marine Corps Reserves, after serving eleven years on active duty around the world. She is now a Real Estate Professional with Coldwell Banker Bain. She attended Magnolia Elementary and has her BS and MS degrees from Northwestern University. She took on the job of KUAY Editor/Page designer in 2004 after Hal Will '44 could no longer do it and continued producing an outstanding newsletter. Her realtor work and her many volunteer activities have made it difficult to continue as editor. The Association is very appreciative of her years of service to the Grizzly cause.

Dear Kerin McMahon and the QAHSAA,
I wanted to take a moment and say thank you so much for awarding me a scholarship. I am almost finished with my first semester of veterinary school at WSU and it's going great. I am gaining so much valuable knowledge and, although I am super busy, I am loving every second of it. Thank you for helping me to fulfill my dreams.
Thank you so much!
Misty McNeil

To Whom it may Concern,
Earlier this year I was awarded a scholarship from the QAHSAA. The money has been a great help in paying for my college expenses, and I would like to offer my sincerest thanks both for the money and the support and confidence in my abilities that it represents. My first quarter at UW has gone very well, and I am on my way to earning a degree in bioengineering. Thank you again!

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

Dwight "Dee" Hawkes '54 has retired as founder and president of the Men of Queen Anne. Although he is stepping aside as president, he will continue to serve on the board. Craig Smith '69 will be the new president.

The MOQA was founded when a C-118 transport carrying ten crew members crashed in the Aleutians on December 11, 1973. Lt. Commander George Varver, QA class of '54, was among this group. The crew perished on the side of a mountain on Great Sitkin Island, about 25 miles northeast of Adak Naval Air Station. After the memorial service for George Varver at Demetrios Orthodox Church, Dee Hawkes initiated lunch meetings with his classmates during each Christmas season to keep the memory of Varver alive.

The luncheons started to grow as it became evident that men from other classes who knew George wanted to come and also to honor other Grizzlies who had passed away. Over the last 38 years, some 41 classes have been represented while coming together for fun, fellowship, and to honor lost classmates.

In the late nineties, the MOQA developed a deeper purpose and started to raise money for athletic scholarships to be dedicated to the relatives of QA graduates. The organization joined the Alliance for Education Foundation, sponsored by the Seattle Public Schools, and initiated the Bob Houbregs QA Golf Classic. Both the Christmas Luncheon and Bob's golf tournament are now Queen Anne traditions that everyone involved enjoys.

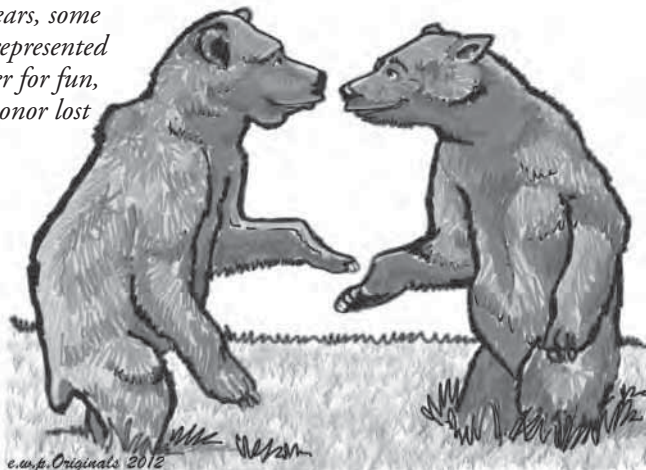

For several years, money for scholarships was also acquired through the Calendar Girls project. Putting together a yearly Queen Anne Calendar was a labor of love for Linda (Fouts) McCullough and Patricia (Purcell) Turnbull, both '54, and much thanks goes to all of the graduates who posed to help raise scholarship money. At the present, however, the Calendar Girls of Queen Anne is no longer in production. Perhaps in the future there may be others who might want to start it all over again.

Craig Smith '69 will take over the reins in 2012. His enthusiasm for keeping the Grizzly "spirit" alive is contagious. Craig has been gearing up to lead and carry the banner for the new looking MOQA into the future. Although it's long overdue, the women of QA are now very welcome and encouraged to join with the men in the goals of this organization. Dee will stay on the board as an advisor.

BOB HOUBREGS GOLF TOURNAMENT A HUGE SUCCESS

by Dee Hawkes '54

A golfer's game is seldom easy, but playing in the Bob Houbregs Queen Anne Golf Classic makes it more fun. On a sunny September Monday, over eighty golfers hit long drives and made puts on the prestigious Everett Golf and Country Club course. A full day of activity demonstrated that the Grizzly "spirit" is still alive. Once again, Coaches Walt Bone and Walt Milroy acted as the grand marshals and gave out golfing tips at each tee box. Staffed with dedicated volunteers, the tournament ran like a fine Swiss watch. Afterward, the awards buffet banquet entertained those in attendance while prizes, awards, and gag gifts were given away.

Asked back again, the 2012 tournament will return to Everett on Monday, September 17th, and it will be open to all golfers regardless of level. There is also talk that another MOQA golf tournament will be held in late April or May at the White

by John Hennes '51

Coach Walt Milroy

The stories flew far and fast at the 38th annual Men of Queen Anne (MOQA) Christmas Luncheon on Tuesday, Dec. 27, 2011 at the Rock Salt Steakhouse on Lake Union. There were at least 100 Grizzlies, including several women, at the annual event. Coach Walt Milroy, now in his 90s and with the same sly sense of humor as always, was honored with the Edo Vanni Spirit Award and many of those present told stories about his time at Queen Anne (1947-1959). The award was presented by Ralph Vanni '54, nephew of Edo Vanni '37, who shared baseball stories about Edo as well as Coach Milroy.

The MOQA Scholarship for 2011 was awarded to Tess Cathey, daughter of Bart Cathey '78. Tess is currently a sophomore and playing women's basketball at Shoreline Community College. She plans on attending Western Washington University next year.

CELEBRATING 30 YEARS: THE QAHS ALUMNI ASSOC.

By Kim R. Turner '61

The Fall 2011 Luncheon celebrated 30 years of our alumni association. The association got its start with the announcement of the coming closure of the school in spring of 1981. It seemed like a good time to recall all the great events and deeds done by multiple generations of high school students. A big gathering/program was set for June 6th. A retrospective of the 70+ years of school plays and musicals called "Bringing Down the Curtain," was held on that late afternoon/evening. More than 15,000 alums from Queen Anne returned for that day and night's festivities and sorrows of the "Last Hurrah".

Fred Pettersen '31, and Maxine (Amundson) McMahan '45 spearheaded the celebration, and later the formation of the Association. After the school closure, they met with other alums in July of 1981 at the Seattle Yacht Club to begin the alumni group and decide on what it would/could do and what purposes it would have. The formation of a scholarship committee followed. During its 30 years, 11 presidents, 12 vice-presidents, 7 treasurers, 14 recording secretaries, and 6 corresponding/membership secretaries have held positions as officers. Presidents include: Fred Pettersen '31, Maxine (Amundson) McMahan '45, Rick Malsed '63, John Hennes '51, Geneva (McKinstry) Lalanne '45, Glo (Gleason) Holcomb '46, Pat (Schage) Nordlund '38, Bill Tobin '46, Ed Bol '81, Barbara (Wilson) Nelson '58, and Kim Turner '61. But for long-term years as an officer on the board, no one can beat the 20 years of service given by Frances (Chapman) Farris '35.

On the other hand, subcommittees such as the KUAY editorial committee and scholarship committee seem to have been concentrated in the hands of several of the above-listed names as well as Kerry McMahan '54, L D Zobrist '62, John Hennes '51 and Hal Will '44 whose editorship of the KUAY drew others into that program. In September 1982 the first issue of the KUAY for the alumni association occurred. The first annual picnic and first banquet were held that year. In 1983 the first scholarship was awarded to Michael S. Bennett '79. He was one of 18 applicants the previous year. Thus began our organization. Our first mailing went to a mere 4,000 alums, people who had signed up at the Last Hurrah. We now mail to over 11,000.

Time flies when you're having fun!

TREASURE FOUND BY QUEEN ANNE REPORTER

Brooks Burford '70, had a wonderful experience while visiting a demolition site in 2010. Let him tell the story.

"A serendipitous find from 1963 when I was a Captain of the Briarcliff Safety Patrol in the 6th grade. Briarcliff Elementary at 39th West and West Dravus was in heavy demolition. I was stepping through the wreckage on a Sunday afternoon into what was left of the Safety Patrol office, more like a large closet room where we stored our flags in a cabinet and our white cross belts in assigned cubby holes. One of the wall cabinets had apparently been crow-barred off the wall and this tagboard sheet with black crayon had drifted down onto the floor, perhaps stuck behind a cabinet all these years. I turned the corner, walked in, and there it was, at my feet ... this sheet of tagboard with black crayon showing the Morning Crew from 1963 .. just waiting for me to retrieve it. The next day the whole shebang was torn down.

"The names listed are Greg DeBruler, Paul Elliott, Randy Gibbons, Ronnie Marblestone, Tom Cook, Doug Wycoff and Shawn Gillette. Ron and his family moved to San Mateo (CA). Randy died in 2009. The six others graduated from Queen Anne High School in 1970, as well as myself.

"To my knowledge this old document and the names scrawled on it in black Crayola are the only tangible remains of Briarcliff Elementary. Lexington Fine Homes is still attempting to build 39 houses on the 10 acre site."

Brooks V. Burford lives in Portland, OR.

A Patches Pal Shows His Love

We get letters from alums who want to share their experiences with other grads. Below is a charming bit of local history tied to Seattle's beloved J.P. Patches, everyone's childhood (or later) favorite clown.

Carl, J.P., Gertrude and Karly Lovgren

My name is Carl Lovgren, class of '74. Growing up a Patches Pal was a great experience. His show was right up the street.

It wasn't until about 12 years ago that I became very close friends with J.P. (aka Chris Wedes). As many times before, I would go to J.P.'s shows and appearances just to see him or shake his hand. (Every Patches Pal knows it's like seeing Santa Claus at any age.) One appearance in Edmonds he asked me what I did for a living? I told him I'm a contractor and he put me to work on his house. I was star struck at first, then he sat me down and started talking. WOW! Talking with both J.P. and his wife was just like sitting and talking to my aunt and uncle.

"After working at his house for awhile he asked me if I would like to drive him to appearances? What! J.P. wants me to be his driver? This guy is an icon. Yes! Yes! Yes! If you thought the clown was funny on TV, driving in his car and listening to his stories were ten times the fun.

"I had an idea many years before even meeting J.P. that a statue would be a great way to show him how much all the Patches Pals loved him. After getting to know him I just had to get the project built. It didn't take long before a committee was formed and an artist was found.

"The statue was built in a year! It stands in Fremont down the street from the 'Waiting for the Interurban' statue. Look on the hat to see Love grin with a light bulb over the name. Also look on the ICU2-TV for all the people involved in the project."

I'm one Lucky Patches Pal!

Carl Lovgren '74, www.allmixeduprock.com

Ed.Note: KIRO TV studios were in the Federal Old Line Insurance Building on QA Ave., near Lovgren's childhood home. The statue of JP and Gertrude was sculpted by Kevin Pettelle and was dedicated Aug. 17, 2008. Thousands of Seattle area citizens and businesses donated to its construction. JP, who is now 84, made his final public appearance last fall.

Grizzlies Roam Summer Picnic

By Claudia (Kettles) Lovgren '65

The Queen Anne Grizzlies came out of hibernation on August 14th for the annual Summer picnic at Gasworks Park.

The very many bears were well fed and watered. Joe Samione '62, Phil Krutsinger '63, Katharyn Gaylord '63, "beared" (i.e., manned) the original grill from Al's Hamburger Place on the Ave. And there was much more, besides the hot dogs, hamburgers (partly provided by Joe Samione '62) and pop—many delicious salads, casseroles and desserts. No campsites had to be raided. It was a lovely afternoon to be out of the cave!

MAGNOLIA FEST 2011

Kim R. Turner '61

A rather disappointing 8 people carried the Queen Anne banner in this year's Magnolia street parade, July 30, 2011. We had heard that a larger group was expecting to join us in the march, but they never materialized. This was sad, particularly since our graduate Kathi Goertzen '76 was Grand Marshal of the parade. Kathi underwent her sixth brain-tumor surgery last February and is progressing steadily. The weather cooperated nicely and the number of persons visiting our alumni booth was comparable to two years earlier when the weather was very nice.

Still, we sold logo merchandise, met a number of Queen Anne grads, and descendants of grads, all of whom enjoyed browsing through the annuals, finding pictures of themselves and/or their parents or grandparents. Thanks again to everyone who assisted in keeping the booth running! (You all know who you are). This year's Magnolia Summerfest Parade will be Saturday, August 4, 2012.

May the snowflakes of your life melt away quickly. Spring is right around the corner.

Goodbye to Two Faculty Members

Roscoe Bass: Died November 8, 2011, age 85, while visiting relatives in Kansas City. He and his twin brother Robert Bass were 1943 graduates of the Pittsburg, Kansas High School, and both became teachers. Roscoe began work in Seattle as a substitute teacher and at Queen Anne High in the late 1950's before joining the staff at Garfield High School and later, Sharples Alternative High School before retiring in 1994. We were glad to see him at our spring luncheon last year.

Ethel Smith, longtime Queen Anne teacher and counselor, died October 26, 2011, in her sleep. She was 96. John Doty, former Queen Anne teacher, sent us the notification. Ethel had a positive influence on numerous students at Queen Anne. There was no service, at her request. Some of you will remember her vividly and her presence at our last open house of the high school building a few years ago. She still looked basically unchanged, tall, willowy, and with presence.

Cheers

A Toast to Survival:

The Class of '51 Sixtieth Reunion

By John Hennes'51

Seattle's long gray summer was still hanging around on September 18, 2011, when the Class of 1951 celebrated its 60th anniversary at the Broadmoor Golf Club in Seattle. Some 93 grads and their spouses/guests enjoyed a delightful brunch and much conversation. Emcee Douglas Weisfield entertained the group and had all the grads individually introduce themselves. At each table was a nostalgia list he had compiled (remember Playland, Senator Claghorn, the Jolson Story, savings stamps...?). Stephen DeForest garnered some rueful laughs with a recital of "you know you're getting old..." jokes. Alas, too many of those made sense.

Each grad was given a Class Directory with contact information and a list of deceased and missing classmates, compiled by LD Zobrist '62 from the alumni database. The numbers show that, of a total class list of 361, 20% are known deceased and 17% missing. Of the 225 with addresses in the database almost 30% were able to attend. It is rewarding to our organizing committee to know that those who can attend make the effort to do so.

The Reunion Committee consisted of Marilyn (Knight) Brashen, Marleine (Rois) Buchanan, Marilyn (Butterworth) Cottingham, Stephen DeForest, Jean (Jorgensen) Fiskien, John Hennes, Dodie (Turner) Janisch, Donna (Putnam) Madden and Douglas Weisfield. Numerous donations and careful budgeting resulted in a surplus of about $1200, all of which was donated to the alumni association for scholarships and operations.

Those who attended were delighted to see their fellow classmates, some for the first time in 60 years. As we move further into our senior years we cherish even more our times together and our memories of years at Queen Anne High.

Grizzly Honorees

Our fellow Grizzlies stretch across the world, but many still live in the Puget Sound area and are contributors to our local community. Every year a few of these are recognized for their contributions and below we report on four of our classmates who have made a difference and been recognized for it.

Terry Howard '52

Courtesy Museum of Flight

The Museum of Flight is one of Seattle's prime tourist attractions, partly because it contains many planes that not only look good but are actually flyable. Restoring historic planes has become the passion of Terry "TC" Howard '52, who over the last seven years has contributed almost 8000 hours to restoring several aircraft, in particular the first Boeing 727-100. In October, 2011, TC was honored as a Legacy Volunteer at a ceremony at the museum, where he is Crew Chief and Quality Assurance Manager for the 727-100 project. Besides the 727 he has worked on B-25s and the Boeing 247D restoration. The work is carried out at the Museum of Flight restoration Center at Paine Field, Everett.

Gertrude (Johnson) Peoples '50

Gertrude (Johnson) Peoples '50

"She's a pioneer," says Husky Coach Lorenzo Romar, speaking of Gertrude (Johnson) Peoples '50. Gertrude is credited with starting the country's first academic-support office for college student athletes. She was the first woman recruiter for athletics at a major U.S. university. Gertrude, now recovering from breast cancer treatments, still works part time at the UW. As an African-American student counselor she has helped hundreds of Husky athletes navigate school and life after school. An Aug. 11, 2011 Washington Athletics Newsletter wrote extensively of her influence on the Husky generations and the love and affection they all have for her. She's not just a treasure, she's the soul of Husky football.

Courtesy University of Washington

Bert Pound '34

Bert was featured in the Seattle Times (11/4/11) in his role as a drummer for the University of Washington Alumni Band. Since 1980 he has done a tribute to Husky football scoring by doing a one-arm push-up for each point the Dogs score, plus one extra. A ballpark figure of his push-ups runs around 15,000 since he began the tradition. He has been a boon to the Grizzly cause, as well as UW. The Alumni Band formed in 1977 and Bert joined soon after. Every Husky fan knows the "push up guy". Thanks to several people who also noted this article, and to Dennis Fee '61, who sent an extra copy.

Robert D. Welden '63

Bob was honored in November by the National Organization of Bar Counsel. Robert retired last September, and the Resolution was given in honor of his 41 years of service to the legal profession. With ten "whereas's" the resolution finishes, "NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the National Organization of Bar Counsel does hereby express its gratitude to Robert D. Welden and expresses its hope that our association with him will continue into the future." The above was adopted at its Annual Meeting, held in Toronto, Ontario, 6 August, 2011. Robert became General Counsel for the Washington State Bar Association in 1988 and has served in that capacity for 23 years.

.... And a Good Time Was Had By All: Class of 1961 50th Anniversary Reunion

By Kim Turner '61

October 1, 2011, a partly gray day, was the date selected for the 1961 Grizzlies' class reunion, which was held at the Overlake Golf and Country Club in Clyde Hill. Some 200+ attendees had several hours of catching up, being totally happy, and posing for photos. Some took advantage of the 1962 Seattle World's Fair reminiscences; others were drawn to the cameras for remembering days, classes, teachers and events at the school which will be made available as DVD's (I would have preferred a video tape). The repast laid out for the throng consisted of a grapefruit and lettuce salad, another with tomatoes, wild rice combos, fresh halibut chunks, with a mild veggie/salsa topping, and delicious pepper steak, in lovely thick slices, and properly prepared. A raspberry crisp served as a light dessert, and the full bar was well attended.

Several well-deserved floral gifts were presented to Donna (Linville) Robinson, Robert Ostling and one other. Then Kim Turner, who was to give a short talk on how Queen Anne got its name, was hit with a "Gotcha!" Tom Magnuson, emcee, was to introduce Kim, spoke about how one other award had to be given, to one who has done much more for the Class of 1961 than serve on the reunion committee, one who keeps everyone informed of what's going on, and what is new with all of us – Kim Turner. Two lovely ladies from the committee, Janet (Galt) Kvistad, and Corky (Andrews) Stark, came up carrying a beautiful glass trophy, all angles and prismatic, looking like a cross between an iceberg and a mountain. Etched onto the back are the words: "In Appreciation to Kim Turner, #1 Alum, Queen Anne H.S. 1961."

2011 Fall Luncheon Another Great Afternoon

Over 100 alums and faculty gathered at the Seattle Yacht Club Saturday, October 22, 2011 for an afternoon of really great raffle items, auction items, food and camaraderie. President Turner gave a short talk on the history of the Queen Anne High School Alumni Association, which was celebrating its 30th year of existence. The program continued with the basket raffle and the special auction. Auctioneer Kerry McMahan '54 was assisted by Gary Dederer '55.

Some of the lucky winners in the auction included Helena (Butterfield) Rowse '64, who successfully bid on a "one-of-a-kind" logo t-shirt, and one of the named fireplace bricks from George Lamoreux' '73 Grizzly Inn. Craig Smith '69, successfully bid on another of the Grizzly Inn bricks as well as one of the bricks from the Queen Anne High Boys' Gym/Auditorium building complex. Former faculty member Victor Anderson acquired the Queen Anne High classroom clock donated by Meri (Gundrum) England '57 and Don Hanson. Craig Smith was also successful bidder on the Grizzly letterman's jacket.

Winners of the raffle baskets included John Doty (faculty), Craig Smith, Jan Anderson, Jackie (Moore) Zobrist '63, Victor Anderson, Scott Mayhew '68, Pat (Sykes) Ronhaar '47, Gretchen (Surry) Monteith '47 and Kim Turner '61.

One surprise attendee was Penny Sake-llaris, one of the lunchroom attendants who worked at Queen Anne until it closed, then finished her work at Roosevelt High School. The luncheon concluded with the Grizzly Fight Song and Alma Mater.

Needless to say, I was blown away to receive this, as I had not been expecting any accolade. I felt that others on the committee had given far more of their time than I had, but the success of the event proves that we all helped make it work.

Earlier in the evening, one of my classmates, who prefers to remain anonymous, presented me with a beautiful thick winter neck scarf, one side done in maroon with letters in orange, "Q.A." The other side was orange, with maroon numbers, "61." I will wear it with deep affection for such thoughtfulness. Everyone was schmoozing and celebrating each other's presence until around 11:30 p.m.

Long distance attendees included Todd Hullin and his wife Susan, who came from Wash.,D.C., for his first reunion with us. Sue Anderson, who has come from the Hilo, Hawaii area in previous years, now has a Washington State address again. Many memories of our years at QA hit me during the course of the evening, and many more in the week since. It was a wonderful event, one which we will not soon forget. Plans are under way for our 55th, or at least a more regular gathering of members of our class.
