

On display at the Class of '69 50th Reunion was the original Queen Anne High School lettering that was mounted over the school entrance when it was built in 1909.

