Co-President's Message

By Kim R. Turner '61

It's déjà vu all over again with a slice of lime. We are trying a new concept of "Co-Presidents" with the idea that the former president will impart the duties to the "Newbie." In which case I wish to welcome Jan (Bridges) Jenkins '69 as my Co-President for 2023/24, after which time she may be elected president of the board for the following year. I have had regrettable luck with my late sister's laptop, but am hopeful it will improve the more I use it. May the rest of 2023 be of good weather, good friends and good health. You are all great in my book!

Co-President's Message

By Janis Bridges Jenkins '69

Co-President, Jan (Bridges) Jenkins '69

I am looking forward to serving as Co-President along with Kim Turner '61 of the Queen Anne High School Alumni Association. I am excited to learn and grow in this position and accept this opportunity as a real challenge.

Former President, Sally Villaluz Ghormley '79, left us with big shoes to fill. I want to thank Sally for her 5 years of leadership, her dedication and all of her hard work. Sally, you will be truly missed.

Class of '31 set major traditions.

At 21, Queen Anne finally chose its mascot.

Not many classes at Queen Anne have left such a durable mark on our school as did the Class of 1931, 60 years ago. They gave us two lasting traditions by adopting our school mascot name of "Grizzlies" and by choosing to be the first class to wear caps and gowns at commencement.

The KUAY Weekly of November 5, 1930, records the historical selection by student vote of the school mascot name Grizzlies. Prior to that time, the QA sports teams were referred to in the press as the Kuays, the Hilltoppers, or just the Queen Anne team. From a preliminary vote on a large list of suggested name submittals, including such interesting ideas as silver marmots and caribous, the three highest were chosen for a final vote in students' homerooms. Grizzlies, Cougars, and Pirates were voted on. It was no

The class of '73 is ready to work the grills, and yes, that is grills – plural. We will have one for hot dogs and one for burgers this year in another effort to get those lines moving. We will have these available as well as bottled water and sodas, although a donation of $5.00 is requested. Gather with your friends and fellow Grizzlies for some grub, gear, and maybe even some great big bear hugs, who knows?

We will have ice bins available for communal food, you are welcome

Happy summer everyone! I've had a wonderful summer so far, with lots of weddings to attend, and I've made it to a few Mariner's games too (Go M's!). I also have a few backpacking trips planned in the PNW, and I'm headed to the Oregon Coast with my family for our yearly trip, and I'm really looking forward to it! I have to take advantage of the nice weather while we have it!

I also continued participating in makers markets around Seattle, and I've really enjoyed that this past year. It's amazing meeting so many people and very reaffirming when people like my work. I've started to expand into more bleach tie-dye shirts with vinyl designs, and just recently got really into crocheting. That's all I've been doing the past month and a half! I feel so blessed to have this creative outlet that allows me to continue to explore and expand my skills as an artist and small business owner! Check out my work at linktr.ee/roxikodesigns

Photographer Extraordinaire

By Gail Martini-Peterson '62

Grant Haller '63 was born in London, UK, to a soldier father and a British mother on December 2, 1944. The Hallers moved to Seattle Washington after the war and settled on Queen Anne Hill. Grant's father's family had a tradition of commercial fishing in Port Angeles, so Grant's father continued that at Fishermen's Terminal while Grant and siblings attended school on Queen Anne.

Grant had an interest in photography even in high school, and after attending Everett Community College, served two years in the Army, he went to the University of Washington and worked as a freelance journalist and photographer for The Daily, the U of W college newspaper. With a degree in Communications, he next worked for the Everett Herald, the Seattle Times, and eventually the Seattle Post Intelligencer for 33 years.

In the 1970s he took photos of Vietnam War protests, the Sky River

Rock Festival, Seattle Liberation Front demonstrations, the Satsop River Fair and Tin Cup Races, the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice marches, anti-McGovern protestors at Boeing Field, the Crabshell Alliance protests, marchers protesting infringements on Native fishing rights, to mention a few. All the important events of the day capturing life in the Pacific Northwest.

One of his big stories was May 18, 1980 when he learned Mt. St. Helens was erupting. He drove to Boeing Field and contacted a pilot he knew there. This pilot liked flying PI reporters because he said, "They weren't afraid to die." Together they flew near the mountain getting close-up photographs, so close that the engine sputtered through the ash plume. They had turned off the transponder so as to not get in trouble with the FAA. The pilot was later fined $10,000 for flying too close to an erupting volcano, but Grant got some stellar photos that day. The PI closed March 17, 2009, but he stayed on to the very end.

In retirement he continued to enjoy the out-of-doors and his grandkids. July 26, 2017 he died fighting a heart illness and interstitial lung disease leaving behind a huge collection of photographs, 40 file cabinets full, which the family decided should go to the University of Washington's Special Collections department.

To view a tiny selection of his photographs and read about his numerous stories, go to the Grant Haller article at HistoryLinks.org.

Class of '70 Reunion and Birthday Celebration

By Jose C. Abiles '70

After a couple of postponements due to the Covid pandemic, the class of '70 finally celebrated their 50th Reunion on 1 October 2022. Although two years late, the class named their reunion "70 Turns 70" as the majority of classmates celebrated that magic year. The reunion celebration started a day early with an informal gathering at Lagunitas in Ballard. About twenty Grizzlies attended. Big smiles, happy faces and hugs abounded as friendships were renewed, memories relived and updates to our lives shared.

The Love Fest continued the following evening with our formal reunion gathering taking place on the high ground of The View Ridge Community at the Sand Point Country Club overlooking Lake Washington. One hundred thirty-eight alumni and spouses were in attendance with many traveling from as far as the east coast of the US and Hawaii. But our most travelled classmate was Dave Parker who came all the way from Bangkok, Thailand.

Classmates who attended Briarcliff Elementary got a pleasant surprise courtesy of Brooks Burford. When Briarcliff was demolished, Brooks rescued the brass school sign, and displayed it at the reunion. It made a great prop for numerous photo ops.

A special part of the evening was when we paid tribute to our classmates who are no longer with us. Sixty-two classmates are known to have passed, and we read their names aloud followed by a moment of silence.

Thanks to modern day technology and social media, classmates unable to attend in-person also got to experience the reunion. As part of the effort to spread the word about our reunion, we leveraged Facebook to reach out to classmates and encourage attendance. We established a QAHS Class of '70 Facebook group. Members of this group were able to attend the reunion virtually as Jose Abiles live-streamed the event while walking around the room and capturing people on each side of the camera exchanging greetings. We received so many thanks from the people who were unable to attend in person but were able to see their classmates.

Thanks to the reunion committee and Varsity Reunions for putting on a great event.

contest, however, as the Grizzlies won with 70 percent of the vote and the other two names each with 15 percent.

It is interesting to note that the "Grizzly Inn" preceded this choice of school mascot name by at least four years, leading to the conclusion that we are named after a hamburger joint. A good thing there was no McDonald's. As to why the Grizzly Inn had its name? The general mythology is that a bear was seen on the slopes of Queen Anne Hill in the early years of the twentieth century and that George Lamoreux, '24, who bought the Inn in 1926, pushed for the name and the mascot as well. Prior to Lamoreux the Inn, located at 214 Galer St., had been called "Louie's Place."

Editor's note: John Hennes was the KUAY editor from 1982 to 2022. We had to unfortunately say goodbye to John January 19, 2023. We are so grateful for all of the support he gave to QAHS in so many ways for so long.

1940s

Members from the classes of 1945, 1947 and 1961 were among the attendees at the Annual Awards banquet of the Queen Anne Historical Society at the Swedish Club on May 25. The group from City of Seattle who pulled together to Landmark the Queen Anne High School were given the award. None of them was present at the ceremony. Your roving correspondent was there along with Lee Monteith '47. We were unable to get the name of the gentleman from the class of 1945, who was brought by his granddaughter.

1950s

Doug Chapple '58 died Feb. 4, 2023. Doug was an educator for 50 years, as teacher, coach, and athletic director. The gym at Lake Washington High School was renamed for him in 1992, the D. A. Chapple Gymnasium.

1960s

David Myers '60, has spent his career as a psychology professor at Michigan's Hope College. His textbooks for introductory and social psychology are now in their 14th editions. His latest general audience book, How Do We Know Ourselves: Curiosities and Marvels of the Human Mind, is published by Farrar, Straus and Giroux. Bob Prins '61 died earlier this year. Many of you remember his mother Ruth Prins who had a television show during the 1950s and early 1960's – "Wunda Wunda." Carol A. (Wandesforde) Morgan '61 died April 16, 2023. Larry Werelius '62 of North Bend is enjoying making beautiful hand-made jewelry. Larry donated a jeweled necklace for the Scholarship Auction at the Spring Luncheon which was admired by many and sold quickly. Linda (Anderson) Wilson '65 has two books, (Shutterfly) featuring her front yard "most entertaining skeleton vignette shows in Magnolia."

Tim Moody '66 was written up in the March 29, 2023 issue of the Queen Anne/Magnolia News regarding his coaching career in little league baseball. If Coach Tim and Sherry Moody had an impact on your life and/or you would like to support the Coach Moody Scholarship, please contact Malcolm Boyles at malcolm_boyles@hotmail.com for more information. The article was written by his classmate Malcolm Boyles '66.

1970s

Eddie Simms '75 sent a nice letter following the Spring Luncheon. He compared arriving late at the luncheon with his first arrival at McClure Middle School as every face turned toward him. This was his first visit to the Seattle Yacht Club. He enjoyed conversations with many of the attendees according to his letter. Gwendolynn I. Lewis '76 wrote to us. Her career(s) began when she obtained a Petroleum Engineer Bachelor of Science degree from the Montana University system. She was the first Black woman to obtain this degree. She earned her Professional Engineers License in Civil Engineering and is registered in Washington State. She was involved in the construction of 17 bridges in the state. She is also a Project Management Professional (PMP) and Notary Public. She recently retired from King County after 30 years of service! She plans on touring the U.S. and other countries while retired.

Lloyd Perry, Math Teacher

By Beth (Wassenberg) Guislin '67

Lloyd Perry taught mathematics at Queen Anne from 1969-1981. He was an outstanding teacher and mentored many students in math and overall life skills.

On the QAHS Grizzlies Facebook site, Karl Perry posted about his dad's passing (March 21, 2023). Sixty-three students and one fellow teacher responded describing how much they appreciated Mr. Perry. From the multitude of comments, it is clear that Mr. Perry cared deeply about his students.

From his obituary: A lifelong teacher, thinker, learner, adventurer and entrepreneur, he influenced countless lives.

Homecoming Dance - Third Times a Charm!

By Mary Cooke '79

I am happy to say that this year we have managed to reserve a Saturday night at the Ballard Elks Lodge that is earlier in the year, sunset at 6:36pm, and there is not a UW Husky football game, home or away! As successful as our initial dance was, there was COVID hesitancy among other issues last year, so we hope that this fall, the third attempt will indeed be charmed and charming. We want everyone to have a great time and we will be providing snacks, sodas, and waters. There will be a "No Host" bar available at the Grizzly Watering Hole (in the corner) where you can satisfy that bear of a thirst you work up on the dance floor.

We can dance the night away, led once again by DJ Ron Bolin's skilled direction, from 6pm until 10pm anyway, on Saturday, October 7, 2023, and we hope to see you there!

Ballard Elks Lodge – 6411 Seaview Ave NW – Seattle 98107 – Saturday – Oct 7, 2023 – 6pm to 10pm
Tickets are $25 per person in advance and $35 per person at the door.

You can make reservations and pay online at www.qagrizzlies.org/reunions.htm or pay by check using the coupon on page 14.

Spring Luncheon Recap

By Mary Cooke '79

Though we still had a few traffic issues, the weather was spectacular as 84 alumni gathered together at the Seattle Yacht Club on Saturday, April 29, 2023. The room was filled with tables delightfully decorated by Shirley (Niebuhr) Kankelfritz '61 in the long tradition of wonderful tablescapes that often included items made by Ruth Hanson Ghormley '42 who passed away November 1, 2022, and by one of our special guests at this event, Glo Gleason Holcomb '46, who has created programs for our luncheons for a long time. Thanks, Glo, for all of your Grizzly service and for continuing to support us by joining us this year! And a big shout out to the Classes of '58 & '60 who had 3 tables.

We were also grateful for the generous donation made by Terry "TC" Howard '42 of two passes to the Museum of Flight that were won as a table prize by the lucky person who found a special mark under their plate. Terry is UAL 727 Restoration Crew Chief and historical 727 aviation writer, author of the 2019 book United 727 N7001U.

The program had its somber moments that included a tribute to John Hennes '51 who, along with his stellar career at Boeing, could count his stewardship of the KUAY among his accomplishments of the last 40 years. We were grateful that his widow, Margaret was there as our guest. I was honored to pay tribute to, and lead a round of applause for Sally Villaluz Ghormley '79, who recently resigned as our board President after leading us gracefully and efficiently for 5 years - both in person and via Zoom! We are sorry to see her go and grateful for her contributions as President, Treasurer before that, and as a valued board member.

We snuck the Annual Meeting, including the election of board members, into the main course and rewarded everyone with a lemon meringue tart for dessert. I don't know about you, but I had the steak, and it, along with the sides of mixed grilled veggies and sliced, fried potatoes, were delicious.

As the meal wrapped up, we announced that Donna Ogren Gray '53 won the 50/50 raffle, that this was the last 15 minutes of the day to buy Grizzly Gear in person, and finally the winners of the Silent Auction.

GRIZZLY ANGELS

Our Association is funded primarily by donations, plus sales of merchandise and raffles. We are unique among alumni groups in not having paid memberships. Your tax deductible gifts are greatly appreciated and needed not just to provide scholarships, but also to cover the KUAY, logo merchandise purchases and miscellaneous expenses. All our efforts are by unpaid volunteers. In these difficult times we hope you can find a way to help the QAHSAA continue its mission.

We had a variety of items available this year, with themed baskets - including one with Jeanne (Hayes) Warren '61's famous homemade Almond Rocha, which inspired some fevered bidding - as well as these big-ticket items:

Item #1 was a 50.5 w x 23.5 d x 20.5 h glass topped coffee table that was made from a decorative panel taken from the Queen Anne High School Auditorium when it was demolished after the closing of the school. The table was made by Michael Fenton, '62. After passing through ownership of several QAHS Alumni, it was most recently donated for auction by Sherry (Peck) Moody '66 to support the Scholarship Fund. Thanks, Sherry! This table piqued a lot of interest, including from some of the Yacht Club staff, and was finally won by Suzy Ward '79, as a Mother's Day gift for her sister, Lynn (Ward) Wingard '76 who was Sr. Class President, and active in Drama. This beautiful piece of furniture, made from part of the proscenium, is a wonderful way to honor those QA days.

Item #2 was a museum quality framed picture size, 32" x 53" that was created using a school-closing poster & photo of the school. It was donated this year by John D "Dave" Peterson, '63. It had hung in his office for many years. He was our Alumni Association insurance agent and has recently retired. This item was won by a grad who just couldn't resist its rich history, and just maybe, those sad bear eyes.

My favorite story of the passed microphone session was a woman who told us how she had asked a young man to the "Tolo" dance one year. They successfully attended the dance and then went their separate ways. They reconnected 50 years later, and 4 years ago, they were married! Sorry folks, I didn't catch her name or grad year...60 something, I think... but it's a happy story for the romantics among us.

All in all, it was a great gathering of grads. Hope you can join us next year for food, fun, and frivolity with a little "board business" thrown in the middle. In the meantime, Go Grizzlies!

Want to make your Homecoming experience a real sock hop?

Head over to the next page or to the website and buy these when you have a chance, and we will see you at the dance! Of course, you can still score a pair that night at the merch table - just off the floor.
